Eighteenth Shooting Match Opens on Range at Sea Girt

Riflemen of Several States Begin Contest for District of Columbia Trophy and Others—Washington Marksmen on Field.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 4.—The eighteenth Sea Girt shooting tournament opened this morning, to continue until September 12. The meeting will be the largest ever held here, excepting three years—1993, 1995, and 1995—when the national rifle matches were shot on the Jersey range.

"WILD MAN" CAPTURED RUSSIAN PRINCESS

Crime Consisted of Belonging to Secret Society. Others Convicted.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 4 .- Convicted of no more serious charge than of being a member of a group organized to change the existing form of Russian society, Princess Alexandrovna Tchercisky, of an ancient family and distantly related to the Czar, was sent today, with thirty-eight of her followers to spend a long period at penal service tude in Siberia.

The group, with the princess at its nead, was very active in Cheerson. Its existence is supposed to have bec known to the authorities through the admission of a government spy to mem-bership. While the group did not teach violence ,its members urged a movement for the gradual weakening of the autocracy and the freeing of the people.

The princess and five of her followers received fifteen years' imprison-ment; three were sentenced to twelve, ten to ten years, five to eight, five to six, one to five, and nine to three years.
